

KREG LEVELLING CORNERS FOR MILLING CUTTER INSERTS

€26,99 (excl. VAT)

These levelling corners are the easiest way to install an insert in a home-made router table. There is no need for a supporting rabbet, and they have a unique design that allows them to be installed from below. They have eight adjustable contact points, four corner bolts for stability and placement tabs to facilitate installation.

SKU: KRE-PRS3040

GALERIJAFBEELDINGEN

These levelling corners are the easiest way to install an insert in a home-made router table. There is no need for a supporting rabbet, and they have a unique design that allows them to be installed from below. They have eight adjustable contact points, four corner bolts for stability and placement tabs to facilitate installation.

PRODUCT INFORMATION

- adjustable screws
- eight different adjustment points

DESCRIPTION

These levelling corners are the easiest way to install an insert in a home-made router table. There is no need for a supporting rabbet, and they have a unique design that allows them to be installed from below. They have eight adjustable contact points, four corner bolts for stability and placement tabs to facilitate installation.

No video available for this product!

DOWNLOADS

No download available.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Weight

2 kg