

SET TILTING SUPPORTS FOR PRL400

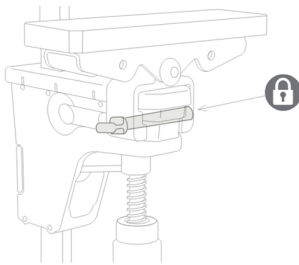

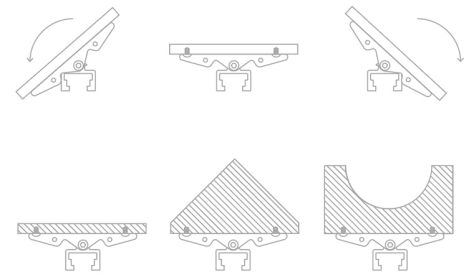

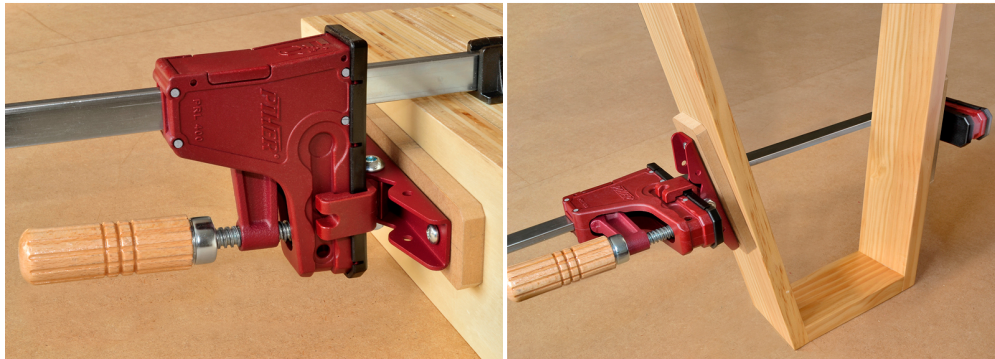

€19,84 (excl. VAT)

This set of tilting supports for the PIHER PRL400 clamps provides a larger clamping surface. They are made of PA polyamide and steel and come standard with a flat MDF surface. Holes are provided to swap the standard flat MDF surface for a homemade one. This allows you to make special shapes to easily clamp 90 ° or round workpieces.

SKU: PIH-02602

GALERIJAFBEELDINGEN

This set of tilting supports for the PIHER PRL400 clamps provides a larger clamping surface. They are made of PA polyamide and steel and come standard with a flat MDF surface. Holes are provided to swap the standard flat MDF surface for a homemade one. This allows you to make special shapes to easily clamp 90 ° or round workpieces.

PRODUCT INFORMATION

- MDF surface
- PA Polyamide grip
- Steel support to screw on homemade pads

DESCRIPTION

This set of tilting supports for the PIHER PRL400 clamps provides a larger clamping surface. They are made of PA polyamide and steel and come standard with a flat MDF surface. Holes are provided to swap the standard flat MDF surface for a homemade one. This allows you to make special shapes to easily clamp 90 ° or round workpieces.

No video available for this product!

DOWNLOADS

No download available.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Weight

0,35 kg